आदेश का दिनांक तथा आदेश क्रमांक	हस्ताक्षर सहित आदेश	कार्यालयीन मामलों में डिप्टी रजिस्ट्रार के अन्तिम आदेश

4-7-2006

When the matter is called out, none present on behalf of the petitioner. No representation is made.

Miss Deepali Pandey, Panel Lawyer for the State/respondent No.1.

Mr. S.L. Kurmi, counsel for respondents No.2 & 3.

Heard both the counsel.

Return has already been filed on behalf of respondents No.2 & 3.

I have perused the petition.

The petitioner has preferred this writ petition under Article 226/ 227 of the Constitution of India and her main grievance is that she is not being given compassionate appointment even though her father namely, Triyugi Narayan Tiwari, who was working as Branch Manager in the Co-operative Bank, Branch: Jaijaipur, District: Janjgir-Champa, died in harness on 5-5-2003. The petitioner applied for compassionate appointment on 2-6-2003.

In the return filed on behalf of respondents No.2 & 3 it has been mentioned that the petitioner is already married and in her application (page 14 of the return), she has mentioned her name as Smt. Tripti Sharma. The mother of the petitioner namely, Aruna Tiwari made an application Annexure R-2/6 on 10-9-2005 mentioning that the petitioner (her daughter) has been married, therefore, she be considered for compassionate appointment.

In view of the above, the petitioner is married and as per the Government policy dated 10th June, 2003, married girl of a deceased employee is not entitled for compassionate appointment.

Therefore, the petition is devoid of merit, same is liable to be dismissed and it is hereby dismissed. No costs.

Consequently, I.A.No.1859/2006 stands disposed of.
